

English
As She Is Spoke:
or
A Jest in Sober Earnest

TWO PARTS IN ONE

by
José da Fonseca
and
Pedro Carolino

This book made available by the Internet Archive.

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

Introduction.

Ft

[image]

◆ ^nirobuciiion

ROM the time of Shakspeare downwards, wits and authors innumerable have made themselves and the public more or less merry at the expense of the earlier efforts of the student of a strange tongue; but it has been reserved to our own time for a sot disant instructor to perpetrate—at his own expense—

[image]

the monstrous joke of publishing a Guide to Conversation in a language of which it is only too evident that every word is utterly strange to him. The Teutonic sage who evolved the ideal portrait of an elephant from his " inner consciousness " was a commonplace, matter-of-fact person compared with the daring visionary who conjures up a complete system of language from the same fertile but untrustworthy source. The piquancy of Senhor Pedro Carolino's New Guide of the Conversation in Portuguese and English is enhanced by the evident bona fides and careful compilation of " the little book," or as Pedro himself gravely expresses it, " for the care what we wrote him, and for her typographical correction."

In short, the New Guide of the Conversation in Portuguese and English was written with serious intent, and for the purpose of initiating Portuguese students into the mysteries of the English language. The earlier portions of the book are divided into three columns, the first giving the Portuguese; the second what, in the opinion of the author, is the English equivalent ; and the third the English equivalent phonetically spelt, so that the tyro may at the same time master our barbarous phraseology and the pronunciation thereof. In the second part of the work the learner is supposed to have sufficiently mastered the pronunciation of the English language, to be left to his own devices. A little consideration of the shaping of our author's English phrases leads to the conclusion that the materials used have been a Portuguese-French phrase-book and a French-English dictionary. With these slight impedimentsmenta has the daring Lusitanian ventured upon the unknown deep of a strange language, and the result, to quote again from the Preface, M May be worth the acceptance of the studious persons, and especially of the Youth, at which we dedicate him particularly," but will at all events contribute not a little to the Youth's hilarity.

To begin with the vocabulary; it is perhaps hardly fair to expect a professor of languages to trouble himself with "Degrees of Kindred," still, such titles as "Gossip mistress, a relation, an relation, a guardian, an guardian, the quater-grandfather, the quater-grandmother," require some slight elucidation, and passing over the catalogue of articles of dress which are denominated "Objects of Man" and "Woman Objects," one may take exception to "crumbs"

Introduction.

and "groceries," which are inserted among plates and cruets as ordinary table garniture.

Among what are denominated M Eatings" we find "some wigs," "a dainty dish. "a mutton shoulder," "a little mine," -hog-fat," and u an amelet": the wunu is scarcely appetising, especially when among "Fishes and Shellfishes" our Portuguese Lucullus sets down the "hedgehog," "snail," and "wolf." After this such trifles as "starch" arranged under the heading of "Metals and Minerals," and "brick" and "whitelead" under that of "Common Stones" fall almost flat; but one would like to be initiated into the mysteries of u gleek," "carousal," and "keel." which are gravely asserted to be "Games." Among "Chivalry Orders" one has a glimmering of what is intended by "Saint Michaelmas" and "Very-

vi. Introduction.

Merit" ; but under the heading of "Degrees," although by a slight exercise of the imagination we can picture to ourselves "a quater master," "a general to galleries," or even a " vessel captain," we are entirely nonplussed by " a harbinger " and " a parapet."

Passing on to " Familiar Phrases," most of which appear to be old friends with new faces, Senhor Carolino's literal cribs from the French become more and more apparent, in spite of his boast in the Preface of being " clean of gallicisms and despoiled phrases." "Apply you at the study during that you are young" is doubtless an excellent precept, and as he remarks further on "How do you can it to deny " ; but study may be misdirected, and in the moral, no less than in the material world, it is useful to know " That are the dishes whom

Introduction. vii.

you must be and to abstain H ; while the meaning of " This girl have a beauty edge" is scarcely clear unless it relates to the preternatural acuteness of the fair sex in these days of board schools and woman's rights.

Further on the conversationalist appears to get into rough company, and we find him remarking " He laughs at my nose, he jest by me," gallic6 " Il* me rit au nez y il se moque de moi"; " He has me take out my hairs," " He does me some kicks," " He has scratch the face with hers nails," all doubtless painfully translated with the assistance of a French-English dictionary from " // via arrache' les cheveux " " // me donne des coups-de-picd," " // ma lacere' la figure de ses ongles." It is noticeable that our instructor as a rule endeavours to make the possessive pronoun agree with the substantive

viii. Introduction.

in number and gender in orthodox Portuguese fashion, and that like a true grammatical patriot he insists upon the substantive having the same gender as in his native tongue; therefore " as unhas " must be rendered " hers nails " and " vdssas civiliddes " " yours civilities." By this time no one will be disposed to contradict our inimitable Pedro when he remarks " E factio" giving the translation as " He has the word for to laugh," a construction bearing a suspicious resemblance to " // a le mot pour rire." " He do the devil at four" has no reference to an artful scheme for circumventing the Archfiend at a stated hour, but is merely a simulacrum of the well-known gallic idiomatic expression " // fait le diable a quatre" Truly this is excellent fooling; Punch in his wildest humour, backed by the whole colony of Leicester Square, could not produce funnier English. " He burns one's self the brains," " He was fought in duel," " They fight one's selfs together," " He do want to fall," would be more intelligible if less picturesque in their original form of " 7/ se brille la cervelle" " Il sest battu e?i duel" " lis se bat tent ensemble" " Il manque de tomber." The comic vein running through the " Familiar Phrases " is so inexhaustible that space forbids further quotation from this portion of the book, which may be appropriately closed with " Help to a little most the better yours terms," a mysterious adjuration, which a reference to the original Portuguese leads one to suppose may be a daring guess at " Choisissez un peu mieux vos paroles,"

In the second part, entitled " Familiar Dialogues," the fun grows fast and furious. Let

2

X. Introduction,

us accompany our mad wag upon " The walk." "You hear the bird's gurgling?" he enquires, and then rapturously exclaims " Which pleasure ! which charm! The field has by me a thousand charms " ; after this, to the question " Are you hunter ? will you go to the hunting in one day this week ? " he responds " Willingly ; I have not a most pleasure in the world. There is some game on they cantons." Proceeding from "game" to "gaming" we soon run aground upon the word "jeu," which as we know does duty in French both for a game and a pack of cards. " At what pack will you that we does play ? " " To the cards." Of course this is " A quel jeu voulez vous que nous jouions?" " Aux cartes;" and further on " This time I have a great deal pack," " Cette foisj'ai unjeu excellent"

Introduction, xi.

Now let us listen to our friend at his tailor's: his greeting is perky—almost slangy. " Can you do me a coat ? " he enquires, but quickly drivels down to " What cloth will you do to ? " and then to the question " What will you to double (doubter) the coat ? " obtains the satisfactory answer " From something of duration. I believe to you that." After requesting to have his garment " The rather that be possible," he overwhelms the procrastinating man of cloth with the stern remark " You have me done to expect too," evidently a bold version of " Vous m avez fait trop attendre" which draws forth the natural excuse " I did can't to come rather." Passing by a number of good things which one would like to analyse if space permitted, we arrive at " For to ride a horse," a fine little bit of word painting almost Car-

xii. Introduction.

lylean in its grotesqueness. " Here is a horse who have a bad looks. He not sail know to march, he is pursy, he is foundered. Don't you are ashamed to give me a jade as like ? he is undshoed, he is with nails up; it want to lead to the farrier." " Let us prick (piquons) go us more fast, never I was seen a so much bad beast; she will not nor to bring forward neither put back." "Strek him the bridle," cries the horsedealer, " Hold him the rein sharters." " Pique stron gly, make to marsh him." " I have pricked him enough. But I can't to make marsh him," replies the indignant client. " Go down, I shall make marsh," declares the dealer; upon which the incensed equestrian rejoins " Take care that he not give you a foot kicks," and the " coper " sardonically but somewhat incoherently con-

Introduction, xiii.

eludes with "Then he kicks for that I look? Sook here if I knew to tame hix."

After the " Familiar Dialogues" we come upon a series of letters from celebrated personages, who would be puzzled to recognize themselves in their new dresses; and a collection of anecdotes which may be taken singly after dinner as a gentle promoter of digestion; the whole being appropriately concluded with " Id-iotisms and Proverbs," between which it must be confessed the distinction is purely imaginary ; the following are a few gems: " Its are some blu stories " (contes bleus); " Nothing some money, nothing some Swiss," " He sin in trouble water " (confusion of pdcher and pecker). " A horse baared don't look him the tooth," " The stone as roll not heap up not foam," mousse meaning both foam and moss, of course the

xiv. Introduction.

wrong meaning is essential to a good "idiot-ism." "To force to forge, becomes smith" (a force de forger on devient forger on). "To craunch the marmoset" and "To fatten the foot" may terminate the list, and are incontestably more idiotic, although scarcely so idiomatic as "Cro-quer le marmot" and "Graisser lapatte."

The column in Portuguese which runs throughout the original work is omitted, and only a sufficient number of the English extracts are culled to enable the reader to form a just idea of the unintentionally humorous style that an author may fall into who attempts to follow the intricacies of "English as she is spoke" by the aid of a French dictionary and a phrase-book.

It is to be trusted the eccentric "Guide" to which this short sketch is intended to serve as

Introduction. xv.

Introduction—and, so far as may be, elucidation—is not a fair specimen of Portuguese or Brazilian educational literature; if such be the case the schoolmaster is indeed "abroad," and one may justly fear that his instruction—to quote once more the Preface—"only will be for to accustom the Portuguese pupils, or foreign, to speak very bad any of the mentioned idioms."

[image]

Preface.

[AUTHOR'S.]

>y CHOICE of familiar dialogues, -*2 *:/<?#;£ of gallicisms, and despoiled phrases, it was missing yet to studious Portuguese and Brazilian Youth; a?id also to persons of others nations, that wish to know the Portuguese language. We sought all we may do, to correct that want, composing and divising the present little work in two parts. The first includes a greatest vocabulary proper names by alphabetical order ; and the second forty three Dialogues adapted to the usual precisions of the life. For that reason we did put, with a scrupulous exactness, a great variety own expressions to english and Portuguese idioms; without to attach us selves (as make some others) almost at a literal translation; translation what only will be for to accustom the Portuguese pupils, or-foreign, to speak very bad any of the mentioned idioms.

English as she is spoke.

We were increasing this second edition with a phraseology, in the first part, and some familiar letters, anecdotes, idiotisms, proverbs, and to second a coins index.

English as she is spoke.

The Works which we were conferring for this labour, fond use us for nothing ; but those what were publishing to Portugal, or out, they were almost all composed for some foreign, or for some national little acquainted in the spirit of both languages. It was resulting from that corelessness to rest these Works fill of imperfections, and anomalies of style; in spite of the infinite typographical faults which some times, invert the sense of the periods. It increase not to cojitain any of those Works the figured pronunciation of the english words, nor the prosodical accent in the

English as she is spoke.

Portuguese; indispensable object whom wish to speak the english and Portuguese languages correctly.

We expect then, who the little book (/or the care what we wrote him, and for her typographical correction) that may be worth the acceptation of the studious persons, and especially of the Youth, at which we dedicate hint particularly.

English as she is spoke.

[image]

English as she is spoke.

Of the Man.

The brain The brains The fat of the leg The ham

The inferior lip The superior lip The marrow The reins

Defects of the body.

A blind A left handed

A lame An ugly

A bald A squint-eyed

A deaf

English as she is spoke.

Degrees of kindred.

The gossip

The gossip mistress

The nurse

A relation

An relation

The quater-grandfather The quater-grandmother A guardian An guardian A widower

An widow.

Trades.

Starch-maker

Barber

Coffeeman

Porkshop-keeper

Cartwright

Tinker, a brasier

Nailer

Porter

Chinaman

Founder

Grave-digger

Tradesman

Stockingmender

Lochsmith

English as she is spoke.

Objects of man.

The boots The buckles The buttons-holes The buskins The lining

The clogs The wig

The morning-gown, night-gown

Woman objects.

The busk The sash The cornet The pumps

The paint or disguise The spindle The patches The skate

Coochmann Running footman

Servants.

Spendth Business-man Groome.

English as she is spoke.

Diseases.

The apoplexy The scrofulas The melancholy

The megrime The whitlow The rheumatisme

The vomitory.

Parties a Town.

The butchery The cause-way The sink

The low eating house The obelis-ks The prison, geol

Kitchen utensils.

The skimming-dish The potlid The pothanger The sponge

The spark The fire The smoke The clout

The jack.

English as she is spoke.

Of the bed.

The bed wood The bed battom

The feet's bed The pillar's bed

The head's bed.

For the table.

Some knives Some groceries

Some crumb.

Eatings.

Some black pudding

Some sugar-plum

Some wigs

A chitterling sausages.

A dainty-dishes

A mutton shoulder 3

A little mine

Hog fat

Some marchpanes

An amelet

A slice, steak [pap

Vegetables boiled to a

English as she is spoke.

Seasonings.

Some wing Some cinnamon Some oranges

Some pinions Some hog'slard Some verjuice

Drinkings.

Some orgeat Some paltry wine

Some sirup or sirop

Quadruped's beasts,

English as she is spoke.

ii

Birds.

Becafico

Calander

Stor

Yeung turkey

Heuth-cock Whoop Pea cock Pinch

Red-breast, a robin.

Insects-reptiles.

Asp, aspic Morpion

Fly I Butter fly Serpent.

Fishes and shell-fishes.

Calamary

Dorado

A sorte of fish

Hedge hog

Large lobster Snail Wolf Torpedo Sea-calf.

English as she is spoke.

Lote-tree, lotos Chest nut-tree

Trees.

Service-tree Jujube-tree

Linden-tree.

Anemony Blue-bottle

Flow

ers.

Mil-foils Hink Turnsol.

Hunting dog Relay dog Hound dog Hound's fee

Hunting.

Picker Gun-powder Priming-powder Hunts man.

English as she is spoke.

13

H

English as she is spoke.

English as she is spoke.

15

Ecclesiastical dignities.

Incumbent Canon Canoness Chanter, a clerk

General of a order Penitentiary Theologist General curate

Chivalry orders.

Black eagle Avis, advice Calatrava

A cannoneer A vessel captain A harbinger A parapet A army general

Elephant Honour Legion Saint Michaelmas Very-merit.

Degrees.

A general to galleries A great admiral A king a lieutenant A quater master A vice admiral's ship

English as she is spoke.

Military objects.

The bait. An arquebuse A bandoleer

The fire pan A bomb ketch The military case

A fusil, a gun.

Music's instruments.

A flagelet

A dreum A hurdy-gurdy.

Chastisements.

A fine Honourable fine

To break upon

To tear off the flesh

To draw to four horses.

English as she is spoke.

'7

[image]

Familiar Phrases.

Go to send for.

Have you say that ?

Have you understand that he says ?

At what purpose have say so ?

Put your confidence at my.

At what o'clock dine him ?

Apply you at the study during that you are young. Dress your hairs. Sing an area. These apricots and these peaches make me and

to come water in mouth.

How do you can it to deny ?

Wax my shoes.

That is that I have think.

That are the dishes whose you must be and to abstain. This meat ist not too over do. This ink is white. This room is filled of bugs. This girl have a beauty edge. It is a noise which to cleave the head.

This wood is fill of thief's. Tell me, it can one to know? Give me some good milk newly get out. To morrow hi shall be entirely (her master) or unoccupied. She do not that to talk and to cackle. Dry this wine.

He laughs at my nose, he jest by me. He has spit in my coat. He has me take out my hairs. He does me some kicks.

He has scratch the face with hers nails.

He burns one's self the brains.

He is valuable his weight's gold.

He has the word for to laugh.

He do the devil at four.

He make to weep the room.

He was fighted in duel.

They fight one's selfs together.

He do want to fall.

It must never to laugh of the unhappies.

He was wanting to be killed.

I am confused all yours civilities.

I am catched cold.

I not make what to coughand spit.

Never I have feeld a such heat.

Till say-us ?

Till hither.

I have put my stockings outward.

I have croped the candle.

I have mind to vomit.

I will not to sleep on street.

I am catched cold in the brain.

I am pinking me with a pin.

I dead myself in envy to see her.

I take a broth all morning.

I shall not tell you than two woods.

Have you understood ?

Let him have know ?

Have you understand they ?

Do you know they ?

Do you know they to ?

The storm is go over.

The sun begins to dissipe it.

Witch prefer you ?

The paving stone is sliphery.

The thunderbolt is falling down.

The rose-trees begins to button.

The ears are too length.

The hands itch at him.

Have you forgeted me ?

Lay him hir apron.

Help-to a little most the better yours terms.

Dont you are awaken yet ?

That should must me to cost my life.

We are in the canicule.

No budge you there.

Do not might one's understand to speak.

Where are their stockings, their shoes, her shirt and her petlicot ? One's can to believe you ? One's find-modest the young men rarely. If can't to please at every one's. Take that boy and whip him to much. Take attention to cut you self. Take care to dirt you self. Dress my horse.

Since you not go out, I shall go out nor I neither. That may dead if I lie you. What is it who want you ? Why you no helps me to ? Upon my live.

All trees have very deal bear. A throat's ill.

\

22 English as she is spoke.

You shall catch cold one's.

You make grins.

Will some mutton?

Will you fat or slight?

Will you this ?

Will you a bon ?

You not make who to babble.

You not make that to prate all day's work.

You interompt me.

You mistake you self heavily.

You come too rare.

End First Parts

English as she is spoke.

[image]

Familiar Dialogues

For to wish the good morning.

How does your father do ? He is very well.

I am very delight of it. Were is it ? I shall come back soon, I was no came that to know how you are.

For make a visit in the morning.

Is your master at home ? Yes, sir. Is it up.

No, sir, he sleep yet.

I go make that he get up.

It come in one's ? How is it, you are in bed yet ?

Yesterday at evening, I was to bed so late that I may not rising me soon that morning. Well! what you have done after the supper ? We have sung, danced, laugh and played. What game ? To the picket.

Whom I am sorry do not have know it! Who have prevailed upon ? I had gained ten lewis. Till at what o'clock its had play one ? Un till two o'clock after mid night. At what o'clock are you go to bed. Half pass three.

I am no astonished if you get up so late. What o'clock is it ? What o'clock you think is it ? I think is not yet eight o'clock. How is that, eight 'clock ! it is ten 'clock struck.

It must then what I rise me quickly..

Adieu, my deer, I leave you. If can to see you at six clock to the hotel from ***, we swill dine togeter. Willingly. Good by.

For to dress him self.

John, make haste, lighted the fire and dress-me.

Give me my shirt.

There is it sir.

Is it no hot, it is too cold yet.

If you like, I will hot it.

No, no, bring me my silk stocking's.

Its are make holes.

Make its a point, or make to mend them.

Comb me, take another comb. Give me my handkarchief. There is a clean, sir. What coat dress you to day ? Those that I had yesterday. The tailor do owe to bring soon that of cloth.

Have you waxed my shoes ? I go wax its now.

It must that I may wash my hands, the mouth and my face.

c the walk.

Will you and take a walk with me ?

Wait for that the warm be out.

Go through that meadow. Who the country is beautiful! who the trees are thick! Take the bloom's perfume. It seems me that the corn does push alredy. You hear the bird's gurgling ? Which pleasure ! which charm ! The field has by me a thousand charms. Are you hunter ? will you go to the hunting in one day this week ? Willingly; I have not a most pleasure in the world. There is some game on they cantons ? We have done a great walk.

the weather.

We shall have a fine weather to day.

There is some foggy.

I fear of the thunderbolt.

The sun rise on.

The sun lie down.

It is light moon's.

For to write.

It is to day courier day's; I have a letter to write.

At which does you write ?

Is not that ? look one is that.

This letter is arrears.

It shall stay to the post. This pen are good for notting. During I finish that letter, do me the goodness to seal this packet; it is by my cousin.

How is the day of month ?

The two, the three, the four, etc.

That is some letter to me.

Go to bear they letter to the post.

the gaming.

Do you like the gaming ?

At what pack will you that we does play ?

To the cards.

Waiter, give us a card's game.

What is the trump ?

The club's king.

Play, if you please.

The heart's aces.

We do ought.

This time I have a great deal pack.

With the tailor.

Can you do me a coat?

What cloth will you do to ?

From a stuff what be of season.

How much wants the ells for coat, waist coat,

and breeches ? Six ells.

What will you to double the coat ? From some thing of duration. I believe to you that

When do you bring me my coat ?

The rather that be possible.

Bring you my coat?

Yes, sir, there is it.

You have me done to expect too.

I did can't to come rather.

It don't are finished ?

The lining war not sewd.

It is so that do one's now.

Button me.

It pinches me too much upon stomach.

The sleeves have not them great deal widenness ?

No, sir, they are well.

With a hair dresser.

Your razors, are them well ?

Yes, Sir.

Comb-me quickly; don't put me so much pomatum. What news tell me? all hairs dresser are newsmonger.

Sir, I have no heard any thing.

English as she is spoke.

For to breakfast.

John bring us some thing for to breakfast. Yes, Sir; there is some sousages. Will you than I bring the ham ? Yes, bring-him, we will cup a steak put a nappe clothe upon this table. I you do not eat? How you like the tea. It is excellent. Still a not her cup.

For to ask some news.

It is true what is told of master M*** ? Then what is told of him ? I have heard that he is hurt mortally. I shall be sorrowful of it, because he is a honestman. Which have wounded him ? Do know it why ?

The noise run that is by to have given a box on the ear to a of them.

For to buy.

I won't have a good and fine cloth to make a coat. How much do you sell it the ell? We thought overcharge you from a halfpenny, it cost twenty franks. Sir, I am not accustomed to cheapen: tell me the last price. I have told you, sir, it is valuable in that. It is too much dear, I give at it, eighteen franks. You shall not have what you have wished. You did beg me my last word, I told you them. Well, well, cut them two ells. Don't you will not more ? No, at present.

For to dine.

Go to dine, the dinner is ready. Cut some bread; here is it, I don't know that boiled meat is good.

Gentilman, will you have some beans ?

Peter, uncork a Porto wine bottle.

Sir, what will you to ?

Some pears, and apples, what wilt you ?

Taste us rather that liquor, it is good for the stomach. I am too much obliged to you, is done.

For to speak french.

How is the french ? Are you too learned now ? I could to tell some word's that I know by heart. Not apprehend you, the french language is not difficult. I know it, and she have great deal of agreeableness. Who I would be. If I was know it! It must to study for to learn it. How long there is it what you learn it ? It is not yet a month. How is called your master ?

It is called N***

I know him it is long; he has teached a many of my friends. Don't he tell you that it must to speak french ?

For to see the town.

Anthony, go to accompany they gentilsmen,

do they see the town. We won't to see all that is it remarquable here.
Admire this master piece gothic architecture's. The chasing of all they figures is astonishing

indeed. The streets are very layed out by line and too paved. There is it also hospitals here ? It not fail them. What are then the edifices the worthest to have seen? It is the arsnehal, the spectacle's hall, the cusiom-house and the Purse.

English as she is spoke.

We are going too see the others monuments such that the public pawnbroker's office, the plants garden's the money office's, the library.

3i inform one'self of a person.

How is that gentleman who you did speak by and by.

Is a German.

Tongh he is German, he speak so much well italyan, french, Spanish, and english, that among the Italyans, they believe him Italian, he speak the frenche as the Frenches themselves. The Spanishesmen belie ve him Spanishing, and the Englishes, Englis-man.

It is difficult to enjoy well so much several lan-gages.

For to ride a horse.

Here is a horse who have a bad looks. Give me another; I will not that. He not sail know to march, he is pursy, he is foundered. Don't you are ashamed to give me a jade as like ? he is undshoed, he is with nails up; it want to lead to the farrier.

Your pistols are its loads ?

No; I forgot to buy gun-powder and balls. Let us prick. Go us more fast never I was seen a so much bad beast; she will not nor to bring forward neither put back.

Strek him the bridle, hold him the reins shart-ers. Pique stron gly, make to marsh him.

I have pricked him enough. But I can't to make march him.

Go down, I shall make march.

Take care that he not give you a foot kick's.

Then he kicks for that I look ? Sook here if I knew to tame hix.

With a watch maker.

I bring you a watch that want to be ordered. I had the misfortune to leave fall down the instant where I did mounted, it must to put again a glass. I want not a pendulum? I have them here some very good. Don't you live me her proof againts ? I shall not accept that this condition.

For to visit a sick.

How have you passed the night ?

Very bad. I have not slept ; I have had the fever during all night. I fell some pain every where body. Live me see your tongue. Have you pain to the heart? Are you altered ? Yes, I have thirsty often. Your stat have nothing from lrouble some. What I may to eat? You can take a broth. Can I to get up my self? Yes, during a hour or two.

English as she is spoke. t>7

Let me have another thing to do ? Take care to hold you warme ly, and in two or three days you shall be cured.

For to travel.

Where you go so ?

I am going to Cadiz.

Have you already arrested a coach ?

Yes, sir, and very cheap.

There is it some danger on the highway ?

It is not spoken that.

They speak not that may have some robbers on the woods ? It have nothing to fear, or in day neither the night. Don't we does pass for a*** ? No, sir, they leave it to left. Let us take patience, still some o'clock, and we shall be in the end of our voyage.

With a inn keeper.

What you give us for to take supper.

Gentlemen, what you will have.

Give us a pigeon couple, a piece of ham and a salad. What have us expended ? The accout mount in little the supper, the bed and the breakfast, shall get up at thirty franks.

From the house-keeping.

I don't know more what I won't with they servants.

I tell the same, it is not more some good servants. Any one take care to sweep neither to make fire at what I may be up.

How the times are changed! Anciently I had some servants who were divine my thought. The duty was done at the instant, all things were cleanly hold one may look on the furnitures now as you do see. It is too different, whole is covered from dust; the pier-glasses side-boards, the pantries, the chests of drawers, the walls selves, are changed of colours.

Believe me, send again whole the people ; I take upon my self to find you some good servants for to succeed them.

Ah! what I shall be oblig'd to you of it!

For the comedy.

Were you go to the theatre yesterday ?

Yes, sir; I won't to see the new play in which did owed to play and actress which has not appeared on any theatre.

How you think her?

She has very much grace in the deeds great deal of exactness on the declamation, a constitution very agreeable, and a delightful voice.

What you say of the comedy ? Have her suc-ceeded ? It was a drama; it was whistled to the third scene of the last act.

Because that ?

It want the vehicle, and the intrigue it was bad conducted. So that they won't waited even the upshot ? No, it was divined. In the mean time them did diliver justice to the players which generally have play very well. At the exception by a one's self, who had land very much hir's part. It want to have not any indulgence towards the bat buffoons. Have you seen already the new tragedy ? They praise her very much. It is multitude already. Never I had seen the parlour so full. This actor he make very well her part. That piece is full of interest. It have wondered the spectadors. The curtains let down. Go out us.

tfhe hunting.

There is it some game in this wood ? Another time there was plenty some black beasts and thin game, but the poachers have killed almost all. Look a hare who run! let do him to pursue

for the hounds! it go one's self in the ploughed land. Here that it rouse. Let aim it! let make fire him! I have put down killed. Me, I have failed it; my gun have miss fixe. I see a hind.

Let leave to pass away, don't disturte it. I have heard that it is plenty pardridges this year. Have you killed also some thrushes. Here certainly a very good hunting.

tfke fishing.

That pond it seems me many multiplied of fishes. Let us amuse rather to the fishing.

I do like-it too much.

Here, there is a wand and some hooks.

Silence! there is a superb perch ! Give me quick the rod. Ah ! there is, it is a lamprey. You mistake you, it is a frog!

dip again it in the water.

With a furniture tradesman.

It seems no me new. Pardon me, it comes workman's hands. Which hightness want you its ? I want almost four feet six thumbs wide's, over seven of long.

For embarking one's self.

Don't you fear the privateers!

I jest of them; my vessel is armed in man of war, I have a vigilant and courageous equipage, and the ammunitions don't want me its.

Never have you not done wreck?

That it is arrived me twice.

IVith a gardener.

Shall I eat some plums soon ?

It is not the season yet; but here is some peaches what does ripen at the eye sight. It delay me to eat some wal nuts-kernels; take care not leave to pass the season. Be tranquil, I shall throw you any nuts during the shell is green yet. The artichoks grow its ? I have a particular care of its, because I know you like the bottoms. It must to cup the trees. It should pull the bad grasses up.

^the books and of the reading.

Do you like the reading good deal too many which seem me ? That is to me a amusement.

'the field.

All the fields that you see thither were been neglected; it must I shall grub up and to plough its. The ground seems me a little scour with sand and yet it may one make it bring up; I want be fumed time by time.

The writing.

Your pens have any notches, and its spit. How do you like its ? will you its are fine or broad ? I won't me also a wafer or some sealing wax and a seal. In this drawer, there is all that, faiding stick, rule, scraper, saud, etc. There is the postman I go to put it him again.

With a bookseller.

What is there in new's litterature? Little or almost nothing, it not appears any thing of note.

And yet one imprint many deal.

But why, you and another book seller, you does not to imprint some good wooks ?

There is a reason for that, it is that you cannot to sell its. The actual-liking of the public is depraved they does not read who for to amuse one's self ant but to instruct one's.

But the letter's men who cultivate the arts and the sciences they can't to pass without the books.

A little learneds are happies enough for to may to satisfy their fancies on the literature.

Have you found the Buff on who I had call for ?

I have only been able to procure the octodecimo edition, which is embellished with plates beautifully coloured.

With a dentist.

I have the teetht-ache. Is it a fluxion, or have you a bad tooth ? I think that is a bad tooth; please you to examine my mouth ?

You have a bad tooth; will you pull out this tooth ?

I can't to decide me it, that make me many great deal pain.

Your tooth is absolutely roted ; if you leave it; shall spoil the others.

In such case draw it.

I shall you neat also your mouth, and you could care entertain it clean, for to preserve the mamel of the teeth ; I could give you a opiate for to strengthen the gums.

I thank you ; I prefer the only means, which is to rinse the mouth with some water, or a little brandy.

With a laundress.

Who lhat be too washed, too many soaped, and the shirts put through the buck. You may be sure ; never I do else.

For to swim. I row upon the belly on the back and between two waters.

I am not so dexte rous that you. Nothing is more easy than to swim ; it do not what don't to be afraid of.

'the french language.

Do you study ?

Yes, sir, I attempts to translate of french by Portuguese. Do you know already the principal grammars rules? I am appleeed my self at to learn its by heart. Do speak french alwais ? Some times; though I flay it yet. You jest, you does express you self very well.

[image]

English as she is spoke.

[image]

Familiar Letters.

Racine to M. VitarU

My uncle what will to treat her beshop in a great sumptuouness, he was go Avignon for to buy what one not should find there, and he had leave me the charge to provide all things. I have excellent business, as you see, and I know some thing more than to eat my soup, since I know do to prepare it. I did learn that it must give to the first, to second, and to the third service, by dishes that want to join, and yet some thing more; because we does pretend make a feast at four services without to account the dessert.

Good bye, my dear sir, etc.

Mothe to the duchess of the Maine.

My lady, I have a complaint to present you. So much happy that might be one's self, one have not all theirs eases in this world. Your letters are shortest. You have plaied wonderfully all sentiments; less her prattle, etc.

Montesquieu to the abbot Nicolini.

Allow me, my dear abbot, who I remind me of your friendship. I recommend you M. of the Condamine. I shall tell you nothing, else he is a of my friends. Her great celebrity may tell you from others things, and her presence will say you the remains. My dear abbot, I will love you even the death.

00600

[image]

English, as she is spoke.

[image]

Anecdotes.

Cuttler, a very rich man too many avaricious, commonly he was travel at a horse, and single for to avoid all expenses. In the evening at to arrive at the inn did feign to be indispose, to the end that one bring him the supper. He did ordered to the stable knave to bring in their room some straw, for to put in their boots he made to warm her bed and was go to sleep. When the servant was draw again, he come up again, and with the straw of their boots, and the candle what was leave him he made a small fire where he was roast a herring what he did keep of her pocket. He was always the precaution one to provide him self of a small of bread and one bring up a water bottle, and thus with a little money.

A blind did hide five hundred crowns in a corner of their garden; but a neighbour, which was perceive it, did dig up and took its. The blind not finding more her money, was suspect that might be the robed, but one work for take again it ? He was going find the neighbour, and told him that he came to get him a council ; than he was a thousand crowns which the half was hided into a sure part and I don't know if want, if to put the remains to the same part. The neighbour was council him so and was hasten to carry back that sum, in the hope soon to draw out a thousand. But the blind having finded the money, was seized it, having called her neighbour, he told him: " Gossip, the blind saw clearer than this that may have two eyes."

A man one's was presented at a magistrate which had a considerable library. " What you make?" beg him the magistrate. " I do some books," he was answered. " But any of your books I did not seen its.—I believe it so, was answered the author; I mak nothing for Paris. From a of my works is imprinted, I send the edition for America; I don't compose what to colonies."

One eyed was laied against a man which had good eyes that he saw better than him. The party was accepted. " I had gain, over said the one eyed; why I see you two eyes, and you not look me who one."

A english lord was in their bed tormented, cruelly of the gout, when was announced him a pretended physician, which had a remedy sure against that illness. " That doctor came in coach or on foot ?" was request the lord. "On foot," was answered him the servant. " Well, was replied the sick, go tell to the knave what go back one's self, because if he was the remedy, which he exalt him self, he should roll a coach at six horses, and I would be send for him my self and to offer him the half part of my lands for to be delivered of my sickness."

A duchess accused of magic being interrogated for a commissary extremely unhandsome, this was beg him serve one she had look the devil. " Yes, sir, I did see him, was answer the duchess, and he was like you as two water's drops."

A Lady, which was to dine, chide her servant that she not had used butter enough. This girl, for to excuse him serve, was bring a little cat on the hand, and told that she came to take him in the crime, finishing to eat the two pounds from butter who remain. The Lady took immediately the cat, was put into the balances it had not weight that one an half pound.

A countryman which came through to Paris upon the bridge to the change, not had perceived merchandises in several shops. The curiosity take him, he come near of a exchange desk:—" Sir, had he beg from a look simple, tell me what you sell." The loader though that he may to divert of the personage:—" I sell, was answered him ass's heads."—" Indeed, reply to him the countryman, you make of it a great sale, because it not remains more but one in your shop."

The commander Forbin of Janson, being at a repast with a celebrated Boileau, had undertaken to pun him upon her name:—" What name, told him, carry you thither ? Boileau: I would wish better to call me Drink wine." The poet was answered him in the same tune:—" And you, sir, what name have you choice ? Janson: I should prefer to be named John-Meal. The meal don't is valuable better than the furfur?"

A physician eighty years of age had enjoyed of a health unalterable. Their friends did him of it compliments every days: " Mister doctor, they said to him, you are admirable man. What you make then for to bear you as well ? —I shall tell you it, gentlemen he was answered them, and I exhort you in same time at to follow my exemple. I live of the product of my ordering without take an)* remedy who I command to my sick."

A countryman was confessed to the parson to have robbed a mutton at a farmer of her neighbourhood. " My friend, told him the confessor, it must to return, or you shall not have the absolution.—But reply the villager, I had eaten him.—So much worse, told him the pastor ; you vili be the devil sharing; because in the wide vale where me ought to appear we before God every one shall spoken against you, even the mutton. How! repply the countryman, the mutton will find in that part ? I am very glad of that; then the restitution shall be easy, since I shall not have to tell to the farmer: " Neighbour take your mutton again."

Plato walking one's self a day to the field with some of their friends. They were to see him Diogenes who was in to water untill the chin. The superficies of the water was snowed, for the reserve of the hole that Diogenes was made. " Don't look it more told them Plato, and he shall get out soon."

A day came a man consult this philosopher for to know at o'clock it was owe to eat. If thou art rich, told him eat when you shall wish; if you are poor, when you may do.

At the middle of a night very dark, a blind was walk in the streets with a light on the hand and a full jar upon the back. Some one which ran do meet him, and surprised of that light: " Simple that you are, told him, what serve you this light? The night and the day are not them the same thing by you ! —It is not for me, was answering the blind, that I bring this light, it is to the and that the giddie swhich seem to you do not come to run against me, and make to break my jar."

English as she is spoke.

Idiotisms and Proverbs.

The necessity don't know the low.

Few, few the bird make her nest.

He is not valuable to breat that he eat.

Its are some blu stories.

Nothing some money, nothing of Swiss.

He sin in trouble water.

A bad arrangement is better than a process.

He has a good beak.

In the country of blinds, the one eyed men are kings. To build castles in Espagnish.

Cat scalded fear the cold water.

To do the fine spirit.

With a tongue one go to Roma.

There is not any rnler without a exception.

Take out the live coals with the hand of the cat. A horse baared don't look him the tooth. Take the occasion for the hairs. To do a wink to some body. So many go the jar to spring, than at last rest there. He eat untill to can't more. Which like Bertram, love hir dog. It want to beat the iron during it is hot. He is not so devil as he is black. It is better be single as a bad company. The stone as roll not heap up not foam. They shurt him the doar in face. He has fond the knuckle of the business. He turns as a weath turcocl. There is not better sauce who the appetite.

The pains come at horse and turn one's self at foot. He is beggar as a church rat. So much go the jar to spring that at last it break there. To force to forge, becomes smith. Keep the chestnut of the fire with the cat foot. Friendship of a child is water into a basket. At some thing the misfortune is good. Burn the politeness. Tell me whom thou frequent, I will tell you which you are. After the paunch comes the dance. Of the hand to mouth, one lose often the soup. To look for a needle in a hay bundle. To craunch the marmoset. To buy cat in pocket. To be as a fish into the water. To make paps for the cats. To fatten the foot. To come back at their muttuns.

T7 nglish as She is Spoke;

or, A Jest in Sober Earnest.

Compiled from the celebrated "New Guide of Conversation in Portuguese and English."

"Excruciatingly funny."— London World,

"Every one who loves a laugh should either buy, beg, borrow, or—we had almost said steal—the book."— London Fun.

Square i6mo. Parchment-paper cover. Price, 30 cents.

T7 nglish as She is Wrote,

Showing curious ways in which the English Language may be made to convey Ideas or obscure them.

A Companion to "English as She is Spoke."

Square i6mo. Parchment-paper cover. Price, 30 cents.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., 1, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

Don't:

A Manual of Mistakes and Improprieties more or less prevalent in Conduct and Speech.

By CENSOR.

Revised, and with a new chapter addressed expressly to women.

"Ina condensed form, this little volume gives a great variety of useful hints upon the behavior appropriate at the table, in the drawing-room, in public, in speech, in dress, and in general. There are many persons of good instinct and intention who, for want of instruction in these matters, are continually making mistakes. This work has been prepared by some one who has a keen eye and ear; he appears anonymously, but his instincts are unerring.

The things he forbids under 'Don't' are such as are offensive to the well-bred, and he will have hearty thanks for putting his commands so artfully before the reader."— School Journal.

" Finally, we would add on our own account, • Don't fail to read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest this little book, if you would like to remind yourself of some of the things which denote the true spirit of good breeding.' "— The Literary World (Boston).

Square 1Gmo. Parchment paper. Uniform with "English as She is Spoke." Price, 30 cents.

Write and Speak Correctly.

w ' ■■■ — ■ ■ ■ ' -■■■■ -■■■ — ■■■ ■ . —, ,, i »

HThe Orthoepist:

A Pronouncing Manual, containing about Three Thousand Five Hundred Words, including a considerable Number of the Names of Foreign Authors, Artists, etc., that are often mispronounced. By Alfred Ayres. Fourteenth edition. i8mo, cloth, extra. Price, $1.00.

" It gives us pleasure to say that we think the author in the treatment of this very difficult and intricace subject, English pronunciation, gives proof of not only an unusual degree of orthoepical knowledge, but also, for the most part, of rare judgment and taste."— Joseph Thomas, LL. D., in Literary World.

HThe Verbalist:

A Manual devoted to Brief Discussions of the Right and the Wrong Use of Words, and to some other Matters of Interest to those who would Speak and Write with Propriety, including a Treatise on Punctuation. By Alfred Ayres, author of "The Orthoepist." Ninth edition. i8mo, cloth, extra. Price, $1.00.

" We remain shackled by timidity till we have learned to speak with propriety."— Johnson.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., i, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

"The English Grammar

of William Cobbett.

Carefully revised and annotated by Alfred Ayres,

Author of "The Orthoepist," "The Verbalist," etc.

"The only amusing grammar in the world."—HENRY Lytton Bulwer.

<<

Interesting as a story-book."—Hazlitt.

"I know it well, and have read it with great admiration." — Richard Grant White.

"Cobbett's Grammar is probably the most readable grammar ever written. For the purposes of self-education it is unrivaled."—From, the Preface.

Mr. Ayres makes a feature of the fact that Who and Which are properly the co-ordinating relative pronouns, and that That is properly the restrictive relative pronoun.

The Grammar has an Index covering no less than eight pages.

Uniform with "The Orthoepist" and "The Verbalist." 18mo, cloth. Price, $1.00.

>>

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., i, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

Terrors in the Use of English.

By the late WILLIAM B. HODGSON, LL. D.,

Professor of Political Economy in the University of Edinburgh. American revised edition. 121110, cloth. Price, $1.50.

(i 1

1 The most comprehensive and useful of the many books designed to promote correctness in English composition by furnishing examples of inaccuracy, is the volume compiled by the late William B. Hodgson, under the title of 'Errors in the Use of English.' The American edition of this treatise, now published by the Appletons, has been revised, and in many respects materially improved, by Francis A. Teall, who seldom differs from the author without advancing satisfactory reasons for his opinion. The capital merits of this work are that it is founded on actual blunders, verified by chapter and verse reference, and that the breaches of good use to which exception is taken have been committed, not by slipshod, uneducated writers, of whom nothing better could be expected, but by persons distinguished for more than ordinary carefulness in respect to style."—
New York Sun.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., 1, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

Qocial Etiquette

of New York.

CONTENTS:

The Value of Etiquette; Introductions; Solicitations; Strangers in Towns; Debuts in Society; Visiting, and Visiting Cards for Ladies; Card and Visiting Customs for Gentlemen; Morning Receptions and Kettle-Drums; Giving and attending Parties, Balls, and Germans; Dinner-giving and Dining out; Breakfasts, Luncheons, and Suppers; Opera and Theatre Parties, Private Theatricals, and Musi-cales; Extended Visits; Customs and Costumes at Theatres, Concerts, and Operas (being two additional chapters written for this edition); Etiquette of Weddings (rewritten, for this edition, in accordance with the latest fashionable usage); Christenings and Birthdays; Marriage Anniversaries ; New Year's Day in New York; Funeral Customs and Seasons of Mourning.

i8mo, cloth, gilt, price, $1.00.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., i, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

u ' Bachelor Bluff * is bright, witty, keen, deep, sober, philosophical, amusing, instructive, philanthropic — in short, what is not * Bachelor Bluff ' f "

NEW CHEAP SUMMER EDITION,
IN PARCHMENT PAPER.

T<sup>h</sup>achelor Bluff:

His Opinions, Sentiments, and Disputations. By Oliver B. Bunce.

"Mr. Bunce is a writer of uncommon freshness and power. . . . Those who have read his brief but carefully written studies will value at their true worth the genuine critical insight and fine literary qualities which characterize his work."—Christian Union.

"We do not recall any volume of popular essays published of late years which contains so much good writing, and so many fine and original comments on topics of current interest. Mr. Oracle Bluff is a self-opinionated, genial, whole-souled fellow. . . . His talk is terse, epigrammatic, full of quotable proverbs and isolated bits of wisdom."—Boston Traveller.

"It is a book which, while professedly aiming to amuse, and affording a very rare and delightful fund of amusement, insinuates into the crevices of the reflective mind thoughts and sentiments that are sure to fructify and perpetuate themselves."—'EcUctic Magazine.

New cheap edition. i6mo, parchment paper. Price, 50 cents.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., 1, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

Uygiene for Girls.

By Iren^eus P. Davis, M. D.

i8mo, cloth. Price, $1.25.

"Many a woman whose childhood was bright with promise endures an after-life of misery because, through a false delicacy, she remained ignorant of her physical nature and requirements, although on all other subjects she may be well-informed; and so at length she goes to her grave mourning the hard fate that has made existence a burden, and perhaps wondering to what end she was born, when a little knowledge at the proper time would have shown her how to easily avoid those evils that have made her life a wretched failure."— From Introduction.

*' A very useful book for parents who have daughters is ' Hygiene for Girls,' by Irenaeus P. Davis, M. D., published by D. Appleton & Co. And it is just the book for an intelligent, well-instructed girl to read with care. It is not a text-book, nor does it bristle with technical terms. But it tells in simple language just what girls should do and not to do to preserve the health and strength, to realize the joys, and prepare for the duties of a woman's lot. It is written with a delicacy, too, which a mother could hardly surpass in talking with her daughter."— Christian at Work.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., x, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

PRICE, $1.25 A VOL.] [IN TWELVE VOLS.

THE

Parchment Shakspeare.

NEW EDITION OF SHAKSPERE'S WORKS, Bound in parchment, uncut, gilt top.

New York:

D. APPLETON AND COMPANY,

1, 3, AND 5 BOND STREET.

This edition is being printed with new type, cast expressly for the work, on laid linen paper, and in a form and style which give it peculiar elegance. The text is mainly that of Delius, the chief difference consisting in a more sparing use of punctuation than that employed by the well-known German editor. Wherever a variant reading is adopted, some good and recognized Shakspearean critic has been followed. In no case is a new rendering of the text proposed ; nor has it been thought necessary to distract the reader's attention by notes or comments.

" There is, perhaps, no edition in which the works of Shakspeare can be read in such luxury of type, and quiet distinction of form, as this." — Pall Mall Gazette.

The Parchment Library, choicely printed on linen paper, each with a frontispiece, and bound in limp parchment antique, uncut, gilt top. (New York: D. Appleton & Co., i, 3, & 5 Bond Street.)

Tennysons "In Memoriam? $1.25. Tennyson's " The Princess! 1 a Medley. $1.25.

English Odes, Selected by E. W. Gosse. $1.25. Sonnets of Shakspeare. By Edward Dowden. $1.25.

Eighteenth Century Essays. By Austin Dob-

SON. $1.25.

Of the Imitation of Christ. $1.25.

Shelley s Letters. $1.25.

Keble's Christian Year. $1.50.

Gays Fables. $1.25.

Q. Horati Flacci Opera. $1.25.

French Lyrics. $1.25.

Tennyson's Poems. Two vols. $2.50.

Sonnets of John Milton. By Mark Pattison. $1.25.

English Lyrics. $1.25.

THE RHYMESTER;

Or, The Rules of Rhyme.

A Guide to English Versification. With a Dictionary of Rhymes, an Examination of Classical Measures, and Comments upon Burlesque, Comic

Verse, and Song-Writing.

BY THE LATE TOM HOOD.

Edited, with Additions, by ARTHUR PENN.

18mo, cloth, extra. Uniform with "The Orthoepist" and "The Verbalist."
Price, $1.00.

Three whole chapters have been added to the work by the American editor—one on the sonnet, one on the rondeau and the ballade, and a third on other fixed forms of verse ; while he has dealt freely with the English author's text, making occasional alterations, frequent insertions, and revising the dictionary of rhymes.

" Its chapters relate to matters of which the vast majority of those who write verses are utterly ignorant, and yet which no poet, however brilliant, should neglect to learn. Though rules can never teach the art of poetry, they may serve to greatly mitigate the evils of ordinary versification. This instructive treatise contains a dictionary of rhymes, an examination of classical measures, and comments on various forms of verse-writing. We earnestly commend this little book to all those who have thoughts which can not be expressed except in poetic measures."— New York Observer.

u If young writers will only get the book and profit by its instructions, editors throughout the English-speaking world will unite in thanking this author for his considerate labor."— New York Home Journal.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., i, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

Books for Boys and Girls.

Facts and Phases of Animal Life, interspersed with Amusing and Original Anecdotes. By Vernon S. Mor-wood, Lecturer to the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. With Seventy-five Illustrations. i2mo. Cloth, gilt side and back, $1.50.

Boys in the Mountains and on the Plains;

or, The Western Adventures of Tom Smart, Bob Edge, and Peter Small. By W. H. Rideing. With One Hundred and One Illustrations. Square 8vo.

Cloth, gilt side and back, $2.50.

A World Of Wonders ; or, Marvels in Animate and Inanimate Nature. A Book for Young Readers. With Three Hundred and Twenty-two Illustrations on Wood. Large i2mo. Cloth, illuminated, $2.00.

The Young People of Shakespeare's Dramas.

For Youthful Readers. By Amelia E. Barr. With Illustrations. i2mo. Cloth, $1.50.

Winners in Life's Race ; or, The Great Backboned Family. By Arabella B. Buckley, author of " The Fairy-Land of Science "and "Life and her Children." With numerous Illustrations. i2mo. Cloth, gilt side and back, $1.50.

HaiTy'S Vacation ; or, Philosophy at Home. By W. C. Richards, A. M. With numerous Engravings. i2mo. Cloth, $1.25.

Tommy Try, and What He Did in Science. With Forty-six Illustrations. Two vols., i2mo. Cloth, $1.50.

New York: D. APPLETON & CO., x, 3, & 5 Bond Street.

14 DAY USE

RETURN TO DESK FROM WHICH BORROWED

LOAN DEPT.

• This book is due on the last date stamped below, or on the date to which renewed. Renewals only:

Tel. No. 642-3405 Renewals may be made 4 days prior to date due.
Renewed books are subject to immediate recall.

Due end of SPRING Quarter IIIK1 A /ra subject to recall after ^— ^LIS —
~—

gfcC'PLD .UW 8 73-JPAMQ&

JAN 28 1978

«HSL CULFEB 3'8

REC CIH DEC i » 1'v/y

I

urn riD fpr .-

WAR 3 2 2004

GENERAL LIBRARY -U.C. BERKELEY

[image]

Boocmobbt,

[image]

[image]